

Bursary Application: Educational Course Fees 2017-18

PG Certificate in Education/PG Diploma/Masters in Medical Education/Education

Health Education England - East of England is offering funding for health professionals currently working within the NHS in East of England. The programme is aimed at practitioners who have an interest in pursuing an educational role within the NHS in the East of England. Bursaries will be available to established and aspiring educators in the following professional groups:

- ✓ Healthcare Science Professions
- ✓ Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors
- ✓ Allied Health Professionals
- ✓ Dental Hygienists, Dental Nurses and Dental Therapists
- ✓ Operating Department Practitioners
- ✓ Clinical Psychologists
- ✓ Pharmacists and Pharmacy Technicians
- ✓ Medical Staff

Applicants should have applied to and been accepted on a course run by a University in the East of England to commence between September 2017 and October 2018. Other courses may also be permitted subject to agreement by Health Education East of England.

Bursaries will be awarded on production of acceptance of a completed registration form from the University and payment will be made on production of the invoice for course fees. Bursaries will be awarded for up to £4,000 for a full PGCertEd, up to £1,500 for a module allowing the completion and award of a PGCertEd and up to £7,500 on acceptance of registration for a MMed/Med. Individual payments will be up to a maximum of the cost of one year's fees at any one time.

All Universities in the East of England have agreed to consider evidence of appropriate previous teaching experience for the accreditation of prior educational experience (APEL) which may be counted towards a module within a PGCertEd. This service may carry a small fee; fees for APEL will not normally be reimbursed. Payment will be made by cheque/bank transfer.
